

Visiting with children or grandchildren?
Then check out just a few of the areas designed for pint-sized history lovers.

First Floor

Hop aboard a 1940s streetcar and take a ride through Pittsburgh's past.

Climb inside the Kennywood Racer and throw your hands up for a photo!

Serve up an Isaly's ice cream cone, milk a full-scale cow above Mixstirs Cafe, and zoom down the "Liberty Tube," a 12-foot spiral slide.

Forego the elevator and take the steps to explore SmartSteps' six floors of exhibit space filled with colorful murals, wellness tips, health information, and unique facts about Pittsburgh history.

Second Floor

Visit Pittsburgh: A Tradition of Innovation and come face-to-face with life-like figures of influential Pittsburghers. Stop in the Neighborhood to see Mr. Rogers, read the "Gospel of Wealth" with Andrew Carnegie, or flex your muscles with Rosie the Riveter.

Try forging metal the way the Allegheny Arsenal did by pressing a penny into a design then take home a History Center souvenir!

Interact with a "virtual" George Westinghouse and ask more than 200 questions about his world-changing innovations.

Get up-close-and-personal with legendary Pittsburgh Steeler Franco Harris and the NFL's most famous play with a life-like figure and turf from the Immaculate Reception.

Putt away at your inner Arnold Palmer with a miniature golf hole recreating Oakmont Country Club's famed church pew bunkers.

Try your hand at bocce, a traditional Italian game,
and see how close you can get to the pallino.

More - - - - - ➔

----- Third Floor

Become part of the team and try on replicas of the Steelers' six Super Bowl rings.

Think you could make it as the Steelers quarterback? See if you can make a perfect football throw to Hall of Famers Lynn Swann and John Stallworth.

Find out what it feels like to be a goalie for the Pittsburgh Penguins with this fun photo opportunity.

How high can you jump? Test your vertical leap in the Nutrition & Training section of the Sports Museum.

Swing for the fences alongside a life-like figure of Bill Mazeroski as he hits his World Series-winning home run in 1960.

Go to work as an apprentice in a beauty salon, design stained glass windows, and climb through a steel mill as part of the kids-only Discovery Place.

----- Fourth Floor

See if you can pack pickles in time, design Heinz advertisements, stack a store display, and share your favorite Heinz memories in the Heinz 57 exhibition.

Explore the toys your grandparents played long before the invention of video games in the Special Collections gallery.

----- Fifth Floor

Imagine life during the French & Indian War with a life-like figure of a young girl in the Clash of Empires exhibition.

