

Short on time? Have an hour to spare?
Don't miss these must-see areas.

First Floor

Hop aboard a 1940s streetcar and take a ride through Pittsburgh's past.

Climb inside the Kennywood Racer and throw your hands up for a photo!

Second Floor

Visit Pittsburgh: A Tradition of Innovation and come face-to-face with life-like figures of influential Pittsburghers. Stop in the Neighborhood to see Mr. Rogers, read the "Gospel of Wealth" with Andrew Carnegie, or flex your muscles with Rosie the Riveter.

Interact with a "virtual" George Westinghouse and ask more than 200 questions about his world-changing innovations.

Get up-close-and-personal with legendary Pittsburgh Steeler Franco Harris and the NFL's most famous play with a life-like figure and turf from the Immaculate Reception.

Relive Pittsburgh's greatest sports moments with the unique multi-screen Charity Randall Theatre at the entrance to the Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum.

Shoot and score with a game-used jersey and helmet worn by Mario Lemieux from the 1991 Stanley Cup on the second floor and "Le Magnifique's" skates on the third floor.

Relive the most dramatic play in baseball history - Bill Mazerowski's World Series-winning homerun - with the pitching rubber from 1960 on the second floor and a life-like figure of Maz from Game Seven on the third floor.

Third Floor

Tighten up your chin strap with a display featuring items from each member of the Steelers' "Steel Curtain" defense, alongside the hand painted "Steel Curtain" banner displayed at Three Rivers Stadium.

Pose next to Franco Harris' cleats from the "Immaculate Reception" which cemented the Steelers' first playoff victory in 1972.

Fourth Floor

Enjoy the world of 57 varieties with a unique exhibit honoring the culinary innovations of the H.J. Heinz Company.

Step back to Abraham Lincoln's pre-inauguration visit to Pittsburgh in 1861 and see his bed and bedroom set from the Monongahela House Hotel.

Fifth Floor

Imagine yourself in the middle of the French & Indian War - which started in present-day Pittsburgh in 1754 - with one of the life-like figures in the Clash of Empires exhibition.

Want to see more? - - - - ->

Have a second hour to visit?
There's plenty more you won't want to miss!

First Floor

Enjoy the world's first Jeep, designed by the American Bantam Car Company in Butler, Pa. in 1940.

Reminisce about the days of skyscraper cones and chipped chopped ham with a special Isaly's display.

Second Floor

Explore a model of the first Ferris Wheel, designed by Pittsburgher George Ferris for the World's Columbian Exposition in 1893.

Take a trip down memory lane with vintage TV and radio broadcasts in the 1950s living room and kitchen.

Remember one of the most beloved players in Pirates baseball history with Willie Stargell's jersey from the 1982 season.

Relive memories of Three Rivers Stadium from the first game in 1970 to its implosion in 2001 with a touch screen interactive highlighting its more than 30 year history.

Third Floor

Enjoy a video of 1976 Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett along with his uniform, locker, and equipment bag from his Hall of Fame career.

Step back into hockey history with a sweater from the Pittsburgh Hornets from 1940.

Fourth Floor

Explore Pittsburgh's reign as America's Glass City with items from 200 years of regional glass making.

Travel back to the future with a Westinghouse Markette Electric car - top speed of 25 m.p.h.

Examine the craftsmanship of the Rudy Brothers Studio with a window from the Vanadium Building in Oakland.