WHAT A STORY WE HAVE TO TELL YOU

YOU'RE INVITED TO A MUSEUM UNLIKE ANY OTHER.

A place where you can enjoy the greatest works of Maz and Mario. Franco and Roberto. Suzie and Swin. A place where you can relive the moments that made them great. The Immaculate Reception. The Home Run. Olympic gold. Super Bowls. Stanley Cups.

The Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum, a state-of-the-art museum-within-a-museum at the Senator John Heinz History Center, features a stunning collection of sports artifacts and more than 70 interactive activities that celebrate the rich tradition of sports in our region.

IN A PLACE BUILT FOR CHAMPIONS.

Throughout 20,000 square feet of exhibit space, the Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum encourages fans of all ages to feel the pride of our region.

Beginning with a two-story, multi-screen theater, fans can relive the spine-tingling moments in local sports, including Mazerowski's World Series-winning home run, Franco's catch, and Mario's back-to-back Stanley Cups, alongside more recent sports victories.

From boxing to baseball, from the sandlots to the professional leagues and across the spectrum of sports, your entire family will find something to cheer about.

GET IN THE GAME.

Fans can swing away at Oakmont's legendary church pew bunkers, strike a pose next to an original Homestead Grays jersey, rev their engines with Chip Ganassi's Indy 500-winning car, or make a perfect pass to Stallworth and Swann.

Join the team at the Sports Museum, where pride and passion are on display every day.
