David McCullough to Visit History Center for Sold Out Book Talk -The Pulitzer Prize-winning author will discuss his New York Times bestseller "The American Spirit: Who We Are and What We Stand For"-

WHAT: The Senator John Heinz History Center, an affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution, will welcome America's favorite historian and Pittsburgh native David McCullough for a special event, "The American Spirit: An Evening with David McCullough" this Tuesday, Nov. 28 at 7 p.m.

The event is SOLD OUT and no tickets will be available at the door.

The Pulitzer Prize-winning author will join History Center President and CEO Andy Masich to discuss what makes us Americans, as told in McCullough's newest book, "The American Spirit: Who We Are and What We Stand For."

McCullough earned Pulitzer Prizes for his books "Truman" and "John Adams" and is one of the founders of the History Center, providing inspirational leadership during the museum's relocation from Oakland to the Strip District in 1996. He is a recipient of the History Makers Award and served as the keynote speaker for the Pittsburgh 250 History Makers Gala in 2008. In 2013, Allegheny County and the History Center officially renamed the 16th Street Bridge in honor of McCullough.
