MEDIA ALERTMEDIA ALERTMEDIA ALERT

Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum to Host Ninth Annual WPIAL Summit on Sportsmanship

- Nearly 600 high school student-athletes, coaches, and administrators to attend-

WHAT:

The Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum at the Senator John Heinz History Center will host the ninth annual Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League (WPIAL) Summit on Sportsmanship, presented by First National Bank and the WPIAL Committee on Sportsmanship, this Thursday, Nov. 9, from 9:45 a.m. to noon.

Keynote speakers at the Summit on Sportsmanship will discuss topics related to the importance of sportsmanship in athletics to nearly 600 local student-athletes representing a total of 80 WPIAL schools.

Featured speakers include:

- Senator Jay Costa
- Will Allen, former Pittsburgh Steelers player
- Heather Lyke, Director of Athletics, University of Pittsburgh
- Larry Scirotto, Big Ten basketball official
- Anne Madarasz, Director, Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum

Students will also get the chance to tour the Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum.

WHEN:

Thursday, Nov. 9
9:45 a.m. to noon

WHERE:

Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum at the Heinz History Center
1212 Smallman St.
Pittsburgh, PA 15222
Nearly 600 local student-athletes from 80 WPIAL schools will tour the Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum and focus on the importance of sportsmanship in athletics as part of the WPIAL Summit on Sportsmanship on Thursday, Nov. 9.