History Center to Honor Veterans Day with Patriotic Concert and Flag Ceremony

- Veterans Day activities will include a performance by the U.S. Coast Guard Academy Glee Club followed by a flag-folding ceremony in the museum's Great Hall -

WHAT: The Senator John Heinz History Center will honor Veterans Day with a concert and flag-folding ceremony in the museum's Great Hall on Sunday, Nov. 11 from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Following their performance of the National Anthem during the Pittsburgh Penguins game on Nov. 10, the U.S. Coast Guard Academy Glee Club will celebrate the service of Western Pennsylvania veterans with a special performance beginning at 11 a.m.

Following a brief break, visitors are invited to join in the unfurling and refolding of a giant 36-foot American flag during a moving and patriotic ceremony led by History Center staff.

The Veterans Day concert and flag ceremony are free and open to the public but do not include museum admission.

Flag-folding ceremonies are presented as part of the History Center's America 101 initiative, which engages and inspires the public to learn American history through public programs, educational outreach, and special exhibitions.

WHEN: Sunday, Nov. 11
11 a.m. – Concert begins
Noon – Flag-folding ceremony begins

WHERE: Heinz History Center
1212 Smallman St.
Pittsburgh, PA 15222
