Out of this World: History Center to Host 21st Annual History Uncorked

- Pittsburgh’s premier party for young professionals, this year’s space-inspired event will celebrate closing weekend of the Smithsonian’s Destination Moon exhibit -

WHAT: The Senator John Heinz History Center will host its 21st annual History Uncorked, Pittsburgh’s premier party for young professionals, on Friday, Feb. 15 from 7:30-11 p.m.

Presented by BNY Mellon, History Uncorked: Out of this World will feature live music all night long by The Uptown Woods, a fifth-floor dance party hosted by DJ Bamboo with pop-up performances from Mars Jackson throughout the night, and delicious food and drinks from a dozen local hot spots.

During this 21+ night of celestial fun, partygoers can also enjoy tarot card and astrological readings and stargazing with Buhl Planetarium.

This year’s event theme is inspired by the Smithsonian’s must-see Destination Moon: The Apollo 11 Mission exhibition, on display at the History Center through Feb. 18.

Developed by the National Air and Space Museum and the Smithsonian Institution Traveling Exhibition Service (SITES), Destination Moon explores the Apollo 11 Moon landing mission through more than 100 one-of-a-kind artifacts, including the Command Module Columbia.

Along with touring Destination Moon and five floors of engaging exhibits, guests will have the chance to win fabulous prizes at the Silent Auction featuring a special appearance by KISS-FM radio host Tall Cathy.

The History Uncorked: Out of this World committee is chaired by Sara Lynn Ruth, owner of Saralynn Créatif.

Guests must be 21 years of age or older to attend.
