Back to the ’80s: History Center to Host 22nd Annual History Uncorked

- A night of 1980s-inspired fun will raise funds to support the educational programs and services of the “Smithsonian’s Home in Pittsburgh” -

WHAT: The Senator John Heinz History Center will host its 22nd annual History Uncorked, Pittsburgh’s #1 party for young professionals, on Friday, Feb. 21 from 7:30-11 p.m.

Presented by BNY Mellon, History Uncorked: ‘80s Night will feature live music all night long by Ridgemont High: Ultimate ’80s Band, a fifth-floor dance party hosted by DJ Bamboo, and delicious food and drinks from some of the city’s hottest restaurants.

During this totally bodacious 21+ night, partygoers can enjoy after-hours access to the entire museum and ’80s-inspired activities including:

- A throwback arcade from Replay FX featuring the most popular pinball and arcade games of the 1980s;
- Mad Maxx’s rad ’80s photobooth;
- Life-size games courtesy of Pittsburgh Downtown Partnership;
- Special appearance by the Steel City Ghostbusters;
- And much more!

In addition, guests will have the chance to bid on righteous Silent Auction prizes from Hotel Monaco, The Skin Center, Steel City Brand, P3R, the Pittsburgh Pirates, Village Realty, Fairmont Pittsburgh, iHeartMedia, Henne Jewelers, and more.

The History Uncorked: ‘80s Night committee is co-chaired by Tally Cathy, On-Air Personality, 96.1 KISS, and Abby Krizner, Morning Show Host, 105.9 The X.

Guests must be 21 years of age or older to attend. Valid ID is required at entry.

TICKETS: General admission tickets for the event are $65 in advance and $75 at the door. Tickets include full museum access, two drink tickets (plus a cash bar), food and beverage samples from local hot spots, refreshments courtesy of Common Plea Catering, and more.

VIP tickets are available in advance only for $110, which include all the benefits of general admission plus a private, 1980s prom-themed VIP Reception with open bar and appetizers from 6:30-7:30 p.m. and a one-year individual level membership to the History Center.

Tickets are available now at heinzhistorycenter.org/events. All proceeds benefit the educational programs and services of the History Center and Western Pennsylvania Sports Museum.

ATTIRE: 1980s-inspired attire is encouraged! (Think: fingerless gloves, headbands, spandex, jumpsuits, legwarmers, and neon colors.)
